

NCIMPACTS

Regional Councils Impacting North Carolina

North Carolina's 16 Regional Councils of Governments (NC COGs) are uniquely positioned to provide technical assistance, address knowledge and capacity gaps at the local level, and respond efficiently to emerging needs. As trusted partners in each region, NC COGs diligently advocate for and implement collaborative, cost-effective, and tailored solutions for the 620 local governments they serve.

NCOLDERADULTS

Serving & Protecting Our Older Adult Population

NC COGs, through their Area Agencies on Aging, work with a strong network of service providers across the state to provide and sustain a comprehensive and coordinated system of services and information, advocate for enhanced quality of life, and administer key funding sources, such as the Home and Community Care Block Grant, to increase access for our growing older adult population.
